Harvest Home Festival At Antioch AME In Decatur
Atlanta Daily World (1932-2003); Sep 19, 1939; ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Atlanta Daily World
pg. 2

Harvest Home Festival At Antioch AME In Decatur

There is no other way to demonstrate loyalty, love and gratitude than with presence and support. Sunday was such a day at Antioch. The Sunday School was largely attended, the morning service was full of the Holy Ghost and the Jr. Missionary Society at 5 o'clock was quite interesting. At 6:15, the stewardess board No. 2 met with Mrs. Louise Johnson on Cooper Street at which time a tea was given.

The Dramatic Club met with Mr. and Mrs. James King on Houston Street. The pastor preached a soul-stirring sermon at 8:30 p. m. Officers were called to meet at 7:45 p. m. Monday night.

Tuesday night at 8:30 p. m. the Starlite Spiritual Quartet will sponsor an inspiring program.

On Wednesday night, the usher board will open its second anniversary.

Thursday night, Rev. W. W. Foley of Smith Chapel AME Church and his congregation will preach.

Friday evening, Rev. C. L. Jones of St. Phillips and congregation will preach.

Sunday will be home coming day. The Jr. Church is in charge of the program. At 3:30 p. m., Rev. R. H. Alexander of Conyers, Ga., will preach the home coming sermon.

Sunday night, the first run of the Kings and Queens of the Harvest Festival will take place. All old members are urged to come home and meet old and new friends. Miss Best Starr, reporter. A. A. Hightower, pastor.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.