AME Laymen To Hear Dr. Cunningham Sunday At Antioch
Atlanta Daily World (1932-2003); Jun 13, 1959; ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Atlanta Daily World pg. 4

AME Laymen To Hear Dr. Cunningham Sunday At Antioch

DR. FRANK CUNNINGHAM

Plans have been completed for meeting of the AME Laymen Organization Sunday at 3 p. m. at Antioch AME church, Decatur, Ga., at 3 p. m. The speaker will be Dr. Frank Cunningham. His subject will be: "The Layman's Role in Christian Education." according to an announcement made by the reporter, Mrs. J. H. Barrow.

Dr. Frank Cunningham on April 21, 1959 was elevated to the position of President of Morris Brown College, Atlanta, Georgia.

Dr. Cunningham comes to his new position highly trained and with a wide range of experience. He was born in the state of Mississippi, and at the age of 10, moved with his family to Canton, Ohio. He is a product of the Public Schools of Canton, Ohio, and received his Bachelor of Arts from Mount Union College, Alliance, Ohio in 1937.

Dr. Cunningham's graduate work was completed at Boston University where he received the Master of Arts in 1939, the Bachelor of Sacred Theology, Cum Laude, in 1940, and the Doctor of Philosophy degree in 1951. Also, he was the recipient of the Doctor of Laws degree from Paul Quinn College in 1952

His professional experiences include that of Graduate Assistant in the Department of Philosophy, Boston University; Assistant Professor of Philosophy and Religion, Wilberforce University; Dean, Turner Theological Seminary; Chairman, Division of Philosophy and Religion, Morris Brown College; Visiting Professor, Atlanta University Summer School; Associate Pastor, Church of All Nations, Boston, Massachusetts; and Pastor, Community A. M. E. Church.

Dr. Cunningham holds membership in the Georgia Philosophical Society where he served as President from 1955-1957; Southern Society of Philosophy Psychology; American Philosophical Association; Institute of Religion Howard University; Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Incorporated; was a Danforth Fellow in Philosophy, University of Minnesota, summer of 1958; and has published Book Reviews and Articles in the Journal of Religious Thought.

He is married to the former Miss Elizabeth Holmes of Cleveland, Ohio.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.